This recalled product can pressurize when the lid is not fully locked. This can cause the lid to detach while the product is in use, posing burn risks to consumers from hot food and liquids ejected from the product.

Please contact Crock-Pot at recall.crockpot.com or at 1-800-557-4825 to confirm affected product and to order a free replacement lid.

Please see customer service for more information.
